AAOS Board Preparation and Review Course*
Scholarship Application

The J. Robert Gladden Orthopaedic Society (JRGOS) is a pluralist multicultural organization designed to meet the needs of minority orthopaedic surgeons, and to advance the ideals of excellent musculoskeletal care for all patients with particular attention to underserved groups. It provides comprehensive educational experiences designed to create awareness, sensitivity and knowledge of the unique needs of minority populations requiring musculoskeletal care.

Since its inception The J. Robert Gladden Orthopaedic Society has a history of fostering academic pursuits and contributions to the science of orthopaedic surgery. In keeping with this tradition, the JRGOS is pleased to award ten scholarships in the amount of $1,000 each to assist minority orthopaedic residents in preparation for their certifying examinations. The specific goal of the program is to better prepare residents for Part 1 of the ABOS examination by enrolling up to 10 residents in the 2009 AAOS Board Preparation and Review Course which will be held in Chicago, Illinois, April 29 – May 3, 2009. Individual scholarships may only be applied to registration fees associated with the AAOS Board Preparation and Review Course.

Eligibility Criteria:

- Applicant must be a PGY 5 resident in an accredited residency program.
- Applicant must be a member of an under represented minority as defined by the AAMC.
- Applicant must be a JRGOS member or be recommended by a JRGOS member.
- Applicant may not receive any other funding to attend this course.
- Applicant must provide a letter of approval from Chief of Service.

Application Deadline:

March 30

NOTE: This course is not affiliated or sponsored by the ABOS.

Please contact the J. Robert Gladden Orthopaedic Society administrative office if you have any questions or require additional information.
