

MINI BIOGRAPHY ELEBY R. WASHINGTON III, MD

AB Brown University - 1973.

MD Columbia University College of Physicians and Surgeons - 1977.

General Surgery Residency Program, Columbia University St. Luke's Roosevelt Hospital Center - 1977, 1979.

Orthopedic Surgery Residency Program, Columbia University St. Luke's Roosevelt Hospital - 1979 through 1982.

Pediatric Orthopedic Fellowship, Cornell University Hospital for Special Surgery - 1982 to 1983.

Fellow American Academy of Orthopedic Surgeons - 1988.

Fellow American College of Surgeons - 1990.

Professor and Chairman, Department of Surgery and Orthopedic Surgery, Charles R. Drew University of Medicine and Science.

Professor and Vice Chair, Department of Surgery, David Geffen School of Medicine at UCLA.

Medical Director, Orthopedic Service, Martin Luther King Jr., Community Hospital.

Lead Physician and Director of Orthopedic Clinic, Martin Luther King Jr., Outpatient Center (Los Angeles County, Department of Health Services).

President, Faculty Executive Board, College of Medicine, Charles R. Drew University of Medicine and Science.

Research Interests: Orthopedic and musculoskeletal surgical care in underserved communities.